

INNOVATION PRINT AWARDS 2026

Welcome to Fujifilm Global Innovation Print Awards 2026

Welcome to the Innovation Print Awards 2026!

First and foremost, we would like to express our sincere gratitude for your continued support. Since its inception, the Innovation Print Awards (IPA) has grown together with our valued customers, proudly celebrating 18 years of history. We look forward to receiving a vibrant collection of creative and innovative submissions from countries and regions around the world, making this year's contest a grand and inspiring event.

Fujifilm's Graphic Communication Business offers a broad lineup of digital printing solutions, all aimed at driving transformation in your business. As a producer of production equipment, we go beyond simply supplying devices; we are committed to sharing the ingenuity and expertise cultivated by our users through their successful printed products.

The environment surrounding our industry is undergoing complex changes, influenced not only by the rapid adoption of AI but also by geopolitical factors and rising operational costs. Despite these shifts, IPA remains a platform celebrating bold initiatives that harness digital printing's unique strengths. Through your remarkable efforts, we aim to share its global potential and contribute to advancing the graphic arts industry as your trusted partner in innovation and growth.

We eagerly anticipate your distinguished entries to IPA 2026 and look forward to honouring your exemplary spirit of innovation and challenge.

Thank you!

With my best regards
